SAUDI WOMEN IN SPORTS

In the last 3 years there has been great progress in the area of women and sports

There have been significant policy changes

Increased accessibility to events and programs

Global representation of Saudi

Hosting of international sporting events for women

Increase in professional Saudi athletes

Emergence of women on national teams in multiple sports

Appointment of women in sports leadership roles

Since 2015, there has been a significant increase in the number of women who are physically active and playing sport

Examples of

POLICY SHIFTS

Licensing for Women's Gyms

In 2017, the General Sports Authority (GSA) announced the launch of women's gyms licensing. Previously, only male gyms were granted official licences.

A platform was developed to issue gyms licenses, which includes online application, licensing manuals and payment features

As of mid-2019, there are

446 licensed women's gyms across 13 Saudi regions

Physical Education (PE) for Girls in Schools & Universities

Before 2017, PE was not included in public schools curriculum for girls. In 2017, PE became mandatory in girl's schools. Since then the Ministry of Education has taken these steps to implement the decision

Designed a PE curriculum for girls

Developed a training program for teachers to deliver sports programs

Introduced a 4-year PE degree in many universities across the Kingdom

Access to Stadiums

Historically women were prohibited from entering stadiums. In October 2017 the law was amended to allow women access. The first sporting event in a stadium where men and women both attended was a football match in Jeddah in January 2018.

Today the GSA are building
11 NEW STADIUMS around the country for the Saudi public (both men and women)
